A Letter from our Board President and Executive Director...

It finally feels like we are back to pre-pandemic days at Richland Newhope Industries, Inc. (RNI) and we are more focused than ever on integrating people we serve into the community. It is exciting to see our presence out there, helping individuals with disabilities experience new things and discover new passions that encourage each and every one of them to live their best lives. The leadership team at RNI, along with our board members, are grateful for our passionate and dedicated staff who have worked so hard to create unique and individualized opportunities for people served.

We have continued to provide excellent service within our transportation, employment, and day service areas and successfully navigated through all obstacles we encountered along the way. RNI strives to think outside of the box and to be as innovative as possible to ensure people served are building meaningful relationships and are developing skills that help them reach their personal goals, no matter how big or small that goal may be. RNI was awarded a three-year accreditation this past spring, so it's no surprise that our community employment department received very high reviews in their satisfaction survey completed in 2022. The Element of Art Studio/Gallery offered more classes open to the public and The Trillium has done an exceptional job with marketing services and event opportunities.

Executive Director

RNI, Inc.'s Community Employment Department was awarded a Three-Year Accreditation in the Spring of 2022. This accreditation decision represents the highest level of accreditation that can be awarded to an organization and shows the organization's substantial conformance to the CARF standards. An organization receiving a Three-Year Accreditation has put itself through a rigorous peer review process and has demonstrated to a team of surveyors during a virtual visit that its programs and services are of the highest quality, measurable, and accountable. CARF is an independent, nonprofit accrediting body whose mission is to promote the quality, value, and optimal outcomes of services through a consultative accreditation process that centers on enhancing the lives of the persons served.
