Element of Art decorates Christmas Trees in Mansfield

Element art staff and artists decorated Christmas trees at two locations in Mansfield. They have decorated trees at both the Richland Carousel Park (1st 2 photos from L to R) and the last photo is of the tree displayed at Kingwood Center. Both are beautifully decorated and show how talented the Element of Art artists are. Thank you EOA coordinators Suzanne Madden and Sarah Stickney for a great job!!

RNI Crawford Aktion Club makes Food Donation

Adam Z. volunteered to help deliver the Aktion Club food donation to the New Day Ministries Food Pantry in Bucyrus. They were very thankful for the donation and said that people had been coming in all day to get food donations.

Social Integration in Crawford had a busy December

December was off the charts for the Crawford Social Integration Department. This year they brought a lot of holiday cheer and helped others! They participated in several wreath and ornament making classes (at the workshop and the Bucyrus Library) and a soda can caroler craft class at COA. They discovered a new to them movie theater in Mount Gilead where they went to watch A Christmas Story with the best service you could ask for! To top the month off, we participated in a Blanket Making Party at Council on Aging where we tied blankets for the Salvation Army to pass out to local seniors in need. The Acts of Kindness group donated 7 blankets and they received a donation from the local Walmart to bring the total to 11 blankets! They tied a total of 21 blankets on the day of the event with our own Amiee Ward helping with 12 others from our community! Way to go Crawford Team!
