On to a community job at Meijer for Ryan

Ryan has been working at an enclave at Therm-O-Disc for 5 years. While he was there, Ryan has completed several jobs from building boxes, welding and running a press. Recently, Ryan has accepted a position at Meijer in Ontario. His last day at Therm-O-Disc was Friday, September 25th. On this day, Ryan was presented with a cake, card signed by his co-workers and a $50 Visa gift card. The plant manager, his supervisor and staff expressed how much they are going to miss Ryan, but they wished him well in his new position. Congratulations of you're your new job Ryan!!

THANK YOU to all of RNI's essential workers

Barry has been an essential employee at Lowe's Home Improvement for several years. He has continued to show up during the pandemic and is a valued worker. Barry works hard to assist customers with loading their purchases and keeping the parking lot cleared while being safe. RNI, Inc. is proud of Barry's dedication!

Pumpkin fun in the Activities Group

The activities group had some fun this month, going to get pumpkins, painting pumpkins as well as cleaning and carving pumpkins. Here are a few photos submitted by LSA's Rose Neptune and Natalie Koch. These are the pumpkins done by Catherine, Darrin, Lily and Sandy. Also pictured in the top left are Aaron and Jason picking out pumpkins at the pumpkin farm.

Element of Art Studio/Gallery Classes for November

Due to the temporary closure of the Element of Art Studio/Gallery we will not post the October classes until we reopen the gallery for business. Thank you for your understanding during this difficult decision to suspend operations at Element of Art Studio/Gallery.

Ernie out in the community making friends

Ernie is out making friends downtown at Brennan's Barber shop. Brennan recently posted this on his Facebook page stating, "Friends come from the most unlikely of places. Today, reach out to someone who is different than you." Ernie is showing off Brennan's new bike while sweeping up some hair in the shop.

RNI workers recognized during October

RNI, Inc. would like to take a minute to thank the Clearwater Council of Governments and Crawford County Board of Developmental Disabilities for recognizing our DSPs for DSP Appreciation Month! We truly appreciate all you do for the DD community! Shown here is Kim Kent, Director of Community Services of the Crawford County Board of DD presenting Integration Coordinator Jill Burling and LSA Doug Huff with a basket full of goodies for the RNI, Inc. staff to share. Thank you to both the Clearwater COG and CCBDD for taking the time to recognize our essential workers. #RNIInc #heroesworkhere #inthistogether #directsupportprofessionals

Having a great time exploring during the month of October

More fun had during the month of October
