Dottie Cains artwork chosen for OPRA conference

There were over 25 artists that submitted their artwork to be featured on the cover of the 2021 OPRA Fall Conference. Element of Art's very own Dottie Cains was selected for her painting titled "Peaceful". Dottie has been creating amazing artwork at the gallery for the past 9 years. She specializes in painting, jewelry making and ceramics. Dottie has an amorous personality which seems to come through with each piece she creates! She puts a lot of time into her work and pays close attention to detail. Dottie, we are very proud of you!

Employee Spotlights to celebrate National Disability Employment Awareness Month

Lamont Gamble was eager to return to work after being off due to Covid. He worked with his RNI Employment Specialist for several months to find a job he can truly enjoy and be successful at. Lamont recently started at the Outback Steakhouse where he is rolling silverware for the restaurant and keeping the hostess station well stocked. Lamont is thrilled to make extra money and to be out of his house more. Keep up the great work, Lamont!

On Dennis Lindsay's birthday, one of his coworkers knew she would miss it as she no longer worked in his building. Instead of letting it pass without celebrating, she baked him a cake and got him a gift. She took it to his worksite where they had a small party with him. Dennis has worked at Ohio Valley Stamping-Assemblies for over 20 years! Happy Birthday, Dennis!

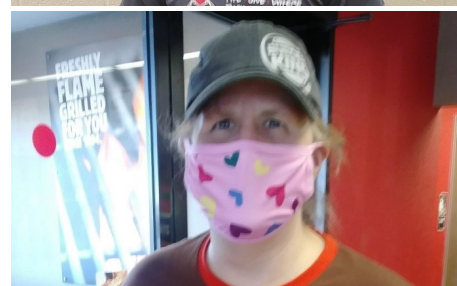

Lizzie Laug has recently began working at Meijer and is already doing an excellent job. She now looks after 6 self-checkout lanes and has done well tackling the new role. Lizzie enjoys this position and feels valued as an employee at Meijer. Congrats Lizzie on your new job, keep up the great work!

Alan Burkhart started at the Bucyrus YMCA in September as a custodian and quickly became a valued member of their team. Prior to the YMCA, Alan took part in Project Search and did very well. Alan has reached several milestones recently including becoming a US citizen, earning his driver's license, and starting his first job. On the way to those milestones, he has faced his fears about working and has done well with overcoming them. RNI is so proud of your successes, Alan. Keep up the great work!

Andrew Bishop recently celebrated his one-year anniversary at Burger King in Bucyrus. In a short amount of time, he became part of the family at the store. When he started, Andrew wasn't sure he wanted to work more than a few days a week and was only washing dishes. He now works five days a week, completing a variety of duties. Andrew looks forward to coming to work every day and his smile certainly reflects that!

Tammy Wilcox does a great job at Burger King. She works in the lobby and is easy to spot because she is always smiling. Her supervisor reports she is very friendly and helpful. Tammy helps with filling drink cups for the drive thru when she has extra time. She loves going to work and making extra money to do the things she enjoys. Before work, Tammy loves to drink her favorite coffee and watch Little House on the Prairie.

Social Integration attended the Pumpkin Carving at Kingwood Gardens

Many outings were taken this month with Integration Coordinator Jackie Steele. In the pictures shown here, Bre and David are carving pumpkins for the Pumpkin Glow and they toured the grounds of Kingwood Gardens enjoying the beautiful seasonal decorations. Cody and Jason are enjoying some of the last nice days we had in October playing miniature golf at Brookside Park. Sherley is shown here enjoying her time playing in the hay and watching kids play at Wayne's Country Market.
