Lots of fall activities happening at all RNI locations

The staff and individuals have been extremely busy this month with outings and activities to enjoy the autumn season. Shown here are a couple of pictures from pumpkin shopping with our Options group for pumpkin painting. Also there was a Halloween dress up, trick or treat and parade for the little trick or treaters from Fairway preschool. Everyone enjoyed handing out candy!!

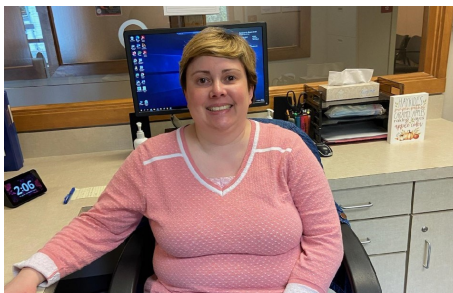

Community Employment Spotlights to celebrate NDEAM

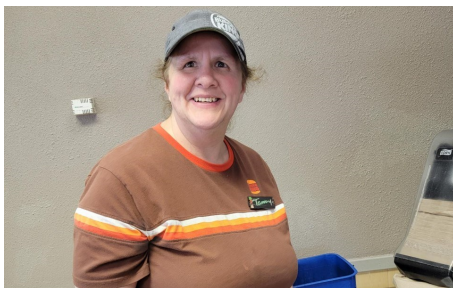

Marsha Burger - Marsha has been working at Texas Roadhouse as a silverware roller for the past year. She enjoys her job because she has made some new friends, likes what she does, and loves to make extra money. In her free time, she enjoys attending church, going out to eat, and shopping. Marsha also loves visiting Amish country and is planning to go there this fall with her husband.

Theresa Dannemiller - Theresa has been employed at McDonald's for over 5 years. She does an awesome job keeping the dining room clean and the drink station stocked. She also works twice a week in RNI, Inc.'s E-Cycling department where she helps disassemble electronics so they can be recycled. Theresa stays focused on her work, but always loves to laugh and smile with her friends. When not working, Theresa likes spending time with her family, going to church, knitting and Wendy Harmon - Wendy is an administrative assistant at the Richland County Board of Developmental Disabilities. She has worked there for almost 7 years. Wendy does various tasks including greeting and assisting guests when they stop by the office, answering and directing telephone calls, and general office responsibilities. Additionally, Wendy prepares documents for scanning and does filing for the office. Wendy works hard to do her best each day. She loves having a job and making her own money so she can go shopping for stylish new outfits.

Justin Morell - Justin has been employed at Texas Roadhouse for four and a half years. He works a few days a week rolling silverware. Justin likes his job and enjoys chatting with his coworkers. Outside of work, Justin loves to travel with his family and enjoys being a part of Special Olympics. Justin loves many sports including bowling, golf, softball, and basketball.

Tammy Wilcox - Tammy has been a dining room attendant at Burger King for a little over 3 years and loves her job. Tammy works a few shifts a week and has made friends with several of the regular customers. Tammy's coworkers say she is always in a good mood and always smiling. When Tammy isn't working, she loves spending time with her daughter and granddaughter, shopping, coloring on her tablet and watching Little House on the Prairie.

Trent Wisdom - Trent started his career at Townplace Suites by Marriot while in high school. Back then, he was hired to do general cleaning. He took a break during the pandemic, but ended up going back because he loved his job so much. Trent continues to do cleaning tasks including keeping the common areas cleaned and sanitized. When not working, Trent loves taking care of his animals especially his horse, Dominio. He also likes music and recently went to a Big Time Rush concert which is one of his favorite bands.

RNI held an End of Summer Spirit Week Celebration

All RNI locations celebrated the end of summer by participating in Spirit Week, which included organized dress-up days. The theme days were Pajama Day, Favorite Sports Team Day, Whacky Wednesday, RNI or Special Olympics Apparel Day and Crazy Hair Day. The week was capped off with a hot dog lunch to support Workers' Council.

SAFETY starts with S, but begins with YOU...
